WHAT DOES THE BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP DO FOR ME?

The BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP is a program providing post-secondary education at Frank Phillips College to qualifying students graduating from Borger High School.

WHAT IS THE BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP?

The BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP pays tuition and fees at Frank Phillips College for up to 36-credit hours for qualifying students. Combined with 24-dual credit hours at Borger High School, students can receive 60-credit hours toward an associate’s degree or certificate.

The BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP is “last money in”, meaning that BOOMTOWN scholars must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and apply for outside scholarships and admission to Frank Phillips College in the Spring of their 12th grade year.

WHAT IS MEANT BY... LAST MONEY IN?

The BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP wants to ensure that all BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP eligible Borger High School students now and in the future are able to attend college. For this reason, the BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP funds are the “last money in”. Any federal government grants or scholarships received by a BOOMTOWN scholar are first applied to tuition and fees. Any tuition and fees not paid by financial aid or scholarships will be paid by the BOOMTOWN SCHOLARSHIP for up to 36-credit hours for eligible students.

BOOMTOWN is a scholarship, so it must be earned.
